TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., December 31, 1896.

SIR: I herewith transmit to the House of Representatives the nineteenth number of the Statistical Abstract, prepared by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics.

Respectfully, yours,

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF STATISTICS,
Washington, D. C., December 21, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to submit to you for transmission to Congress the nineteenth issue of the Statistical Abstract of the United States. It will be unnecessary to specify the many changes in form or matter, by which new tables have been introduced and old statements made more comprehensive.

The demand for the eighteenth issue of this publication was so great that the entire edition was exhausted early in the spring. More than 10,000 applications were received by the Bureau from March to November, and many more requests were addressed to other Bureaus and Departments, as well as to Members of Congress. The copies given to the Superintendent of Documents were also soon disposed of, at a charge of 25 cents per copy. A second edition of 1,000 copies was printed, and was sent out within ten days after its receipt. It is within reason to say that 25,000 copies of the abstract could have been distributed with advantage throughout the country, and especially in States where no previous distribution had been made.

It is certain that the demand for the successive issues of the work will be larger than it was before this year, and that the existing provisions of the laws governing the printing will be inadequate. The full number of copies now provided for is 12,000, of which 3,000 are assigned to this Bureau. I would respectfully recommend that the edition be raised to 22,000, with the following distribution: House, 8,000; Senate, 4,000; Bureau, 10,000.

WORTHINGTON C. FORD,
Chief of Bureau.

HON. JOHN G. CARLISLE,
Secretary of the Treasury.
